

Jeffery Boswell, Esq.

General Counsel,
Fresno Irrigation District

Jeffery “Jeff” Boswell currently serves as the in-house General Counsel for the Fresno Irrigation District (FID). He earned a B.S. from Brigham Young University in 1973, graduating summa cum laude. He obtained his Juris Doctor with honors from the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University in 1976.

As General Counsel for the District, Jeff provides legal advice and representation on all matters affecting FID. His responsibilities include overseeing contracts, ensuring compliance with local, state, and federal laws, and advising on regulatory issues related to water rights, land use, and environmental regulations. He also handles litigation, negotiates agreements, and supports the Board of Directors and staff by offering legal guidance on policy decisions.

Before becoming General Counsel in 2018, Jeff served on the Fresno Irrigation District Board of Directors from 2000 to 2011, including a five-year term as Board President.

Off duty, Jeff is an avid fly fisherman and enjoys spending time with Shirley Jensen, his wife of 50 years, and their five children and 11 grandchildren.
